

A LIST of the Princes and Princesses of the ROYAL BLOOD of ENGLAND, now Living:

CONTAINING

As well those who are Disinherited by Act of Parliament, as the Other who are to succeed Her present Majesty (in case She Dies without Issue) according to the Acts of Limitation, with their respective Ages, Marriages, &c.

21. Feb. 1711

THEY are digested under four several Heads, that of the Protestant Hanoverian Line, which is to Inherit, being the remotest and last of all the Descendants of James the First, King of Great-Britain.

James the First left only Two Children that had Issue, viz. Charles the First, and Elizabeth, Marry'd to Frederick the Fifth, Elector Palatine of the Rhine, and King of Bohemia: All the Issue of King Charles the First are extinct, except Her present Majesty, and the Descendants of his Youngest Daughter, Henrietta Maria, Dutchess of Orleans; so that we are to place Her at the Head of the first Line. Charles Lewis, Elector Palatine, Eldest surviving Son of Elizabeth, Queen of Bohemia, is the Head of the second Branch: His Brother Edward, Prince Palatine, makes the third: And their Sister, the Princess Sophia, Electress Dowager of Hanover, the fourth. The rest of the Children of the Queen of Bohemia Dying without Inheritable Issue.

Note, That the Pretender is attain'd by Parliament, and that the English Government never thought it worth while to take any Notice of Louisa Maria Teresa, Born in France 1692.

It's not unlikely but the Princesses of Salms may have several Grandchildren that we know Nothing of, but without them the Descendants of Prince Edward, now living, are 25, to which add 9 of the House of Savoy, and 14 of the Elector Palatine, the excluded Number amounts to 48.

[illegible]

The first of these is the fact that the government has been unable to secure the necessary funds to carry out its programme of social and economic reform.
 This is due to a combination of factors, including the high cost of borrowing and the low level of foreign aid. The second factor is the lack of political stability, which has led to a series of military coups and civil unrest. The third factor is the corruption and inefficiency of the government bureaucracy.
 These factors have all contributed to the failure of the government to implement its programme of reform.
